Rushing to Court

PREACHERS SELL VOTES

But They Were Cheap and Only Got $5--1155 Indictments Returned.

The total vote of Adams county in the 1910 election was 6561, divided as follows: Harmon, Democrat 3212
Harding, Republican 3214
Clifford, Socialist 39
Thompson, Prohibition 34 Malley, Socialist Labor 1

West Union, Dec. 20.—If the originator of the statement that every man has his price were to visit this town he would find ample justification for it in present conditions.

"Hello, Jake. Confessed yet?"

"Yep. Been indicted yet?"

That has taken the place of other greetings over the entire county.
Vote merchants totalling 80 were awaiting court opening this morning —30 to enter the immunity club through evidence of having bought votes and 50 to confess selling. They are coming in faster than the court, jury and prosecutor can handle them.
Seventy-three new indictments were returned this morning as the result of yesterday afternoon's work. The clerk of court's figures show a total of 1155 indictments so far.

Of this entire number not one has attempted a denial of the charge.
Paul Revere's ride had nothing on Judge Blair's promise of leniency to those who voluntarily confessed. The Johnstown flood is the only fit comparison for the resulting tidal wave of confession.

Judge Blair expects yesterday's rotal of 70 confessions to be exceeded today. He is today securing confessions of bootlegging, gambling and similar offenses. No indictments will be returned on these charges, but suspended sentences for vote boot-ling will be hung over the confessors to keep them in the straight and narrow path. Latest vote quotations received this morning are father and son, $26. Three perfectly good brothers bargained at $15.

West Union, Dec. 20.—The far-reaching effects of Judge Blair's special grand jury probe of election frauds in Adams county is shown in the discovery that not a single voter will be left in one school district or Jefferson township, which includes the town of Wamleysville. Every male citizen of voting age in the district has been indicted, though none of them has as yet been arraigned.

The work has assumed such proportions that the court officers have ceased bringing in indicted ones and are depending on them to come voluntarily. Judge Blair said today that the jury would adjourn Saturday and Monday, and that the court probably would take a recess to permit him and Special Prosecutor Stephen son a chance to make a review of the probe and straighten out odds and ends.

Two more preachers, both residents of Green township, were indicted yesterday for vote selling, each receiving the sum of $5. The officer refused to divulge their names or the denominations they represent.
One young voter yesterday conferred to the jury that he had sold out to his own father, a precinct worker in Meigs township, for $10. He simply had no interest in the election and otherwise would not have voted.

Mrs. Sallie Inlow, the Peebles woman indicted for selling the vote of her son John, pleaded guilty. She made a pathetic plea to the court that she was poor and had to work for a living and could not resist the temptation of taking the money. The court was disposed to be lenient with her and after explaining the gravity of the situation, assessed a fine of $10 and costs, which was remitted.
The son was fined $5 and costs and disfranchised for five years.

The evidence against the woman brought out the fact that a prominent business man of Peebles had purchased the vote. The woman said her husband, from whom she is separated, had also sold his vote.

Judge Blair said that it may be necessary to indict some men suspected of vote buying. He refers to those few higher up, who are coming before the court to tell what they know. The court has been disposed to get only those who have been selling votes, but won't hesitate to get those who did the buying.

Seventy-three more indictments were returned today and 70 persons

ONE OF SOCIAL LEADERS IN CONGRESSIONAL CIRCLES NOW.

Mrs. Timothy Ansberry Mrs. Timothy Ansberry, wife of the Congressman from Ohio, is said to be the most beautiful and best dressed woman in the Congressional set. Mrs. Ansberry was formerly Miss Nellie Kettering, of Cleveland, and at the time of her marriage, December 26, 1898, was recognized as one of the beautiful girls of the city.
Her type is known as the Junoesque, tall, graceful and of elegant proportions, with hazel eyes and creamy complexion. She is one of the few women who need no embellishments to enhance their loveliness.

were arraigned, making a total of 370 arraigned and 1071 indicted.
The total number of persons disfranchised thus far in Adams county for vote selling is 892, 145 new names having been made public by the court today. The last batch is from Jefferson and Meigs townships.
The oldest voter disfranchised so far is from Monroe township, he having passed his 84th birthday. He is a successful farmer and a leader in his neighborhood. He says that he does not expect to live to cast another vote anyway.

A number of first voters look upon the disfranchisement as a hardship, claiming that they were told by committeemen that it was the way in which all elections were gained or lost. In Manchester, with the factories shut down for the holidays and Christmas just passed, it costs a great effort to raise the $12 fine and costs that is assessed against the average guilty man. A number have been compelled to give chattel morgages to secure the amount.

Frank Shively, the new Democratic prosecutor-elect, is already assisting the other officers in the work, as he will assume charge of the investigation Monday. Sheriff-elect James Williams, also a Democrat, has engaged extra deputies to help him when he takes charge.

CAUCUS OF OHIO
CONGRESSMEN
AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, Dec. 20.—A contest between Congressmen Cox and Denver for a place on the ways and means committee in congress will probably be the big event of tonight's Democratic caucus here. It is understood the caucus selection for this place will be accepted by the Democratic speaker. An endorsement of Champ Clark for speaker, the question of approving a committee on committees and recommendations for other committee memberships will also be discussed.
An effort is being made to keep the senatorial fight out of the caucus but two avowed candidates and two senatorial campaign managers will be present and this subject will probably come up.

WAS LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

Bellevue, Dec. 20.—It certainly does pay to advertise, remarked Allen R. Burnham, as he boarded a train here with a blushing bride.
Burnham some months ago inserted advertisements in central Ohio newspapers, requesting photos from Buckeye girls who wished to wed an industrious young bachelor of North Dakota. The photo of Miss Florence L. Corwin of this city caught his eye.
He came here from Washington, D. C., and it was a case of love at first sight. They were married last evening.

SHOOTING IS MYSTERY.

Freemont, Dec. 20.—Joe Arvetti, proprietor of a Greek candy store at Clyde, was shot and probably fatally wounded here last night. Arvetti, unconscious, is unable to tell the name of the would-be murderer, but he is supposed to have been a discharged employe.

JUDGE POWELL

MT. GILEAD CITIZEN NAMED AS JUDGE OF FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

Judge-elect Donahue and Johnson of Supreme Court Take Oath of Office.

Columbus, Dec. 20.—Lewis K.
Powell of Mt. Gilead, Morrow county, was last night appointed judge of the Fifth judicial circuit by Governor Judson Harmon to succeed Judge Maurice Donahue of Perry county, whose resignation was filed just before he took the oath as judge-elect of the supreme court.

Mr. Powell's nomination was in the nature of a surprise, as there was a large field of candidates and he did not appear to be one of the leaders. The new judge will have several years to serve and will take his office at once upon the receipt of the commission sent to him last night.

Judge-elect Maurice H. Donahue of New Lexington, and James Johnson of Springfield, of the supreme court, whose terms begin on the first day of January, received their oath of office Thursday. It was administered by Judge William T. Spear, who will become chief justice with the beginning of the new year.

Messrs. Donahue and Johnson succeeded Judge Augustus N. Summers of Springfield and William B. Crew of McConnelsville, whose terms a-members of the court expire on the last day of the year.

MASSING
OF TROOPS
BY SPAIN

New Born Republic of Portugal May be An-nexed by Monarchy

DEFINITE NEWS MEAGER

England Would Not Interfere But Movement Would Cause Spanish Revolution.

London, Dec. 20.—The annexation by Spain of the new born republic of Portugal is believed today by English officialdom to be imminent in the event that the reported monarchial movement in Portugal reaches the acute stage. Unofficial advices received today say that Spain is massing troops on the Portuguese frontier with the intention of intervening in the little republic is thrown into war.

Premier Canalejas of Spain is declared to have decided on such a move in the hope that the seizure of Portugal will arouse the patriotism of the Spanish people and check the wave of republicanism that has been sweeping over Spain since its adoption of anti-clerical policy.

Owing to the Spanish and Portuguese censurings, definite news as to the extent of the monarchial movement is most meager. The report that an English warship has been ordered to Lisbon in response to the request of the English minister, there-has not been confirmed. The Portuguese charge d'affaires here has received no news of any movement against the government.

Neither ex-King Manuel, who is still refused in England, nor the Marquis Soveral, former Portuguese minister to England, who is now here, was accessible today. The Marquis Soveral has been in conference with George Renly at Sandringham.

While English officialdom admits that the provisional government of President Braga of Portugal is in a bad way as the result of the failure of the new republic to meet the extravagant demands of the populace for the immediate mitigation of all their troubles, it is believed that an attempt to re-establish the monarchy would plunge the country into civil war. The seizure of Portugal by Spain is considered more probable than the restoration of the monarchy.

If Spain should intervene it is improbable that England would interfere as England has sufficient influence at Madrid to shape the developments that would follow. England has a reversionary interest in Portugal's colonies that she is bound to protect and should Spain prove intractable following her absorption of Portugal, England would take a firm hand in peninsular affairs. Any attempt by Spain however, to wipe out the struggling republic would in all probability lead to a revolution by the republicans of Spain who took to the success of the Portuguese republic as the sign of their ultimate triumph. It is this phase of the situation that leads sober Englishmen to believe that the political disorders in Portugal are likely to involve the whole peninsula in revolution.

Should the republic be overthrown, the Duke of Oporto, uncle of ex-King Manuel, is believed to have the best chance for the throne although it is certain that Dom Miguel, the pretend-er, would oppose him. Manuel has already demonstrated his incompetence and it is not believed he would be restored under any condition.

SUES WEALTHY WIDOW.

suit against Mrs. Elizabeth Sund-

NOW IT'S "TIME"
IF THE MAYOR
IS A JEWELLER

John, a foreigner, who was a boarding house of Canal street, accuses Tony, who also lives in the area of Canal street and living a calumniate watch from him. Tony, who does not give his last name, was taken to the city prison Friday on complaint of John, whose last name is also unobtainable. The case of a watching watch will probably face the mayor in court Saturday morning, and if Tony is found guilty, he may get the works until long toward spring, especially since new hands are needed on the stone pile.

B. & O. MACHINIST STRIKE
AMICABLY SETTLED AND MEN WILL SOON RETURN TO WORK

That the strike of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad machinists, which has been on for the past nineteen months, has been settled to the satisfaction of both the company and the strikers, was given out by Mr. T. J. Callahan, the delegate who so ably represented the striking machinists of the Newark shops at the conference with the company's officials at Baltimore, was present at a meeting of the local machinists on Thursday night and made a thorough report of the conference, which has resulted in the strike being amicably settled to the entire satisfaction of both sides. General Business Agent Star, of the district of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad system, was also present at the meeting. An Advocate reporter called at the office of Superintendent Irwin Friday, but was informed that nothing official had been received regarding the settlement of the strike and the probability was that nothing would be known here officially until the first of next month.

While no statement can be obtained from either the Baltimore and Ohio officials or the machinists other than that the terms of the settlement were on a mutually satisfactory basis, it is known that the proposition submitted by the men, which provided for the taking back of former employes had been conditionally accepted by the company. One of the striking machinists in conversation with an Advocate reporter Friday said that it was by agreement of both sides that the terms of the settlement would not be made public.

A dispatch from Baltimore, however, says that a satisfactory adjustment has been reached with reference to the question of piecework, which had been a point of serious difference, and it is proposed that men formerly employed on the piecework scale shall return on that basis. In shops where the piecework system has been extended the employees will accept piecework, having as much time as desired not exceeding 30 days, in which to acquaint themselves with the work involved in the piecework system.

The fact that some of the men were formerly engaged as foremen will not interfere with their returning and resuming the service as machinists.
The proposal also stipulated that all employees reinstated are to be entitled to all their former benefits under the other features of accident and benefit insurance that they enjoyed at the time that they left the shops.

It is thought that a large number of the striking machinists will be at work in their old places next week.
It is a source of congratulation that the troubles which have existed between the machinists and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company for so long, have been settled in so amicable a manner. The machinists, especially those of Newark, who went out on the strike over a year and a half ago, are entitled to commendation for the manner in which they have conducted themselves during the strike. While the officials of the railway company are also to be commended for their efforts to have the strike amicably settled.

REP. FULTON ASSISTS IN RETRENCHMENT

Columbus, Dec. 20.—The house committee on retrenchment. Representatives Fulton, Nye and Browder met with Speaker-elect Vining at Columbus Thursday afternoon and materially reduced the number of house attaches.
The committee was addressed by Governor Harmon who stated that he people had voted for retrenchment and that he was sure the committee would devise means to follow out the voters wishes.

House attaches were reduced from 51 to 38, by decreasing the number of porters from 23 to 15; pages, 13 to 10; stenographers, from 15 to 10. This will save the state $5,000 during a two days session in the house.

The Republicans of the house were given two stenographers, two pages, one bill clerk, and one porter.

The action of the retrenchment committee, of which Hon. W. D. Fulton of this city is a member, met with the hearty approval of Governor Harmon and he congratulated them upon their action. This work is along the lines practiced by Mr. Fulton while a member of the Newark city council, and his experience here has enabled him to make suggestions which greatly facilitated the committee's action at Columbus.

Mr. Fulton will make a valuable member in the legislature and he is now frequently called into consultation by the state party leaders and his friends are predicting that he will land on several choice committees when the appointments are made by Speaker Vining.

was driving the flames and the entire town seemed doomed. Nearby towns have been appealed to for

The fire was controlled with the aid of outside fire apparatus about noon, and the damage is roughly estimated at $75,000.

pital and are now recovering.

The distance is estimated at

This book is a collection of talks given by the author on various subjects, including the New Year resolutions and reading. The book is published by the Newark Daily Advocate.

Fiction, of course, is a great way to spend a few minutes of your time. Among the New Year resolutions, I have found that taking up some new subject in one's reading is a most desirable thing to do.

Some one good thought occurred to me that if we could read a little more of the world's work in an inspiration to the one who reads about it, there being done and the better things some of our authors have done.

Resolve to read some of the world's work in an inspiration to the one who reads about it, there being done and the better things some of our authors have done.

If some course of reading is chosen, the reader will find that the year will end with a new year's resolution to read more.

LAWRENCE SNIDER. A wedding marked by beautiful simplicity was solemnized Sunday, December 25 at 12 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Snider, 51 Tenth street, when their daughter, Miss Hazel, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry C. Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lawrence of Williams street.

To the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" (Chorus, led by Mrs. Charles Adams), the bridal party, consisting of the bride and groom, the bridesmaid, Miss Hazel Snider, sister of the bride, and the best man, Mr. Charles Harris, entered the living room where the ceremony was performed under a canopy of Christmas greens by Rev. Mr. Shoemaker of Ashley, O. in the presence of the families and a few friends.

The bride was charming in a gown of cream satin meshing with an overdress of white chiffon with pearl trimmings. Her only ornament was a necklace with a pendant of pearls a gift of the groom. Her flowers were bride's roses and maidenhair fern. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink silk and carried pink carnations. After the ceremony the wedding dinner was served. The bride's table was beautiful in white carnations and strands of smiley.

Those seated at the bride's table were Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Lawrence, Miss Hazel Snider, Mr. Charles Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Snider, Mrs. William Poulton, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lawrence and Rev. Mr. Shoemaker.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Franks, daughters Elva and Bernice and son Errol of Thornville, O. Mr. Frank Lawrence of Linnville, O. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, Mrs. John Hargnath and Mrs. William Poulton all of Columbus. The event was also the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Snider.

Lake, of Hamilton, formerly of Granville. Dr. C. J. Baldwin officiated. The bride is a graduate of Denison university and a member of Chi Psi Delta sorority. Light of London, Ohio, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the McNaugh home at Frazzessburg. The members of the immediate family were the only attendants.

Mr. Lane is managing a ranch at his Colorado home, where he has been located for four years since leaving Dresden, his former home. He and his bride will leave for the west about the first of the year.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST. Fruit, Sugar and Cream, Broiled Ham, Browned Mashed Potatoes, Coffee.

LUNCH. Creamed Fish, Pickles, Baked Bananas, Cocoa, Old Fashioned Spice Cake.

DINNER. Cream of Carrot Soup, Macaroni, Beef Cannelon, Stewed Salsify, Cold Slaw, Chocolate Bread Pudding, Coffee.

Recipes for December 31, 1910. Old Fashioned Spice Cake. Cream well together one-half of a cupful of butter and one one-half cupfuls of sugar. To one cupful of thick sour cream add one-half of a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one teaspoonful of boiling water. To the creamed butter and sugar add one well beaten egg, and when well mixed, the cream. Stir in one cupful of seeded raisins, one-quarter of a cupful of cornstarch, two cupfuls of flour, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of mace, one teaspoonful of cinnamon and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of cloves. Line a loaf pan with two thicknesses of paper, pour in the batter, dust with a little powdered sugar and bake from one hour to an hour and a quarter (according to thickness) in a moderate oven.

Beef Cannelon with Macaroni. Macaroni, with tomato sauce, makes a tasty garnish for beef cannelon. Boil the spaghetti in salted water until tender, then drain; add to it a good tomato sauce and let stand on the side of the fire until the sauce is partly absorbed. When the cannelon is on the hot platter pour the macaroni round it and sprinkle thickly with grated cheese and a little chopped parsley.

GRANVILLE

INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT OF
BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS EXERCISES.

People Coming and Going in the Old College City—Showmakers' Complaint of Dull Times.

Granville, Dec. 20. — One of the most enjoyable Sunday school Christmas entertainments was that given by the intermediate department of the Baptist Sunday school. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and there was a large crowd in attendance. The first part of the program consisted of songs, recitations, etc., while the second part was given up to a pretty little play by the pupils of the school, which was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. The program throughout was well rendered and the entertainment reflected great credit on the superintendent, Miss Lottie Grandstaff, the teachers and pupils.

Miss Alleyne Callahan, teacher of the third and fourth grades of the Granville public schools, has been spending the holiday vacation at her home in Jackson, O.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Denman of Uhrichsville, who have been visiting relatives and friends here during the past week, returned to their home on Friday.

Judson Evans, foreman in the office of the Granville Times, has been quite sick with the grip during the past week, and has been unable to be at the office.

Miss Katherine Messenger of Newark, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Alward.

After a pleasant visit of some days in the village with friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Castle and son Howard of Williamsport, Ind., have returned home.

Dr. W. H. Richards of Emporia, Kan., has been visiting his parents at their home on North street for the past few days. The doctor is now one of the most successful physicians of Emporia. He has many friends in this vicinity who are always glad to extend to him the glad hand whenever opportunity offers.

Miss Mary Bash has been visiting in Columbus for some days, the guest of her uncle, Sidney Bash and also her aunt, Mrs. Annie Reinhard.

Mrs. J. D. Jones entertained at her home here this week Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Jones of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Rev. A. Ramsey, Rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church of this place and his estimable wife, who have been visiting friends in Columbus for some days, have returned home, after having had a most enjoyable visit.

Wm. Thomas, clerk of the board of public affairs, has tendered his resignation, the same to take effect on Jan. 1.

Local shoemakers say that never before has it been duller in their line than at present, owing to the fact that so many people are wearing overshoes. One cobbler states that it is wonderful the number of both men and women who are having their shoes stretched nowadays, conclusive evidence that the wearers buy shoes too small.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freeman of near Dallas, Texas, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Granville and vicinity for some days, left for their home Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman formerly resided a short distance north of Granville, but left some 15 years ago for the southwest and have made their home in Dallas ever since. They say there is no place like Texas, but that they are glad to get back to Licking county again, even if it is only for a short visit.

Bernard Deeds, a prominent farmer of Morrow county, was here on business Tuesday.

PETER FRUSH
WRITES LETTER
TO THE ADVOCATE

The Advocate has just received the following letter from Peter Frush a former Licking county man, now living in Adams county:

Enclosed find check for which please renew my subscription to your valuable paper which comes a welcome guest to my home. I began taking your paper four years ago, and in that time I have found many items of interest about the people I once knew. Not long ago I noticed that one of Colonel Rutledge's sons had been elected treasurer of Licking county.

In July 1868, I walked six miles and cast my first vote at a primary in Franklin township voting for Colonel Rutledge himself.

I left Licking county 37 years ago, going to Pike county, where I lived four years. I then moved to Adams county and now live in one of the most fertile counties of Ohio, first because it is the only county in the state which has no railroad at its county seat; second, because of its good schools which send highly educated teachers into many of her sister counties, and last, but not least, for its political reform movement, by which we hope to make Adams county the cleanest political county in the state of Ohio, and set an example for the other counties to follow. Our largest towns are West Union, (the county seat), Manchester, Winchester and Peebles. We have no saloons in the county. Crops this year are not so good as usual owing to the weather in the early spring and summer, but we have reasonably good corn. Wheat was a poor quality this year. Fruit was almost a failure, the first time in many years. The fall sowed wheat looked well the last time we saw it, but as we have had snow ever since the last of November, we would hardly recognize the bare ground.

My family consists of myself, wife, three sons, two daughters, one daughter-in-law, two sons-in-law and four grandchildren. Two sons are still at home, one a farmer, the other a teacher in the public schools. The voters in the family are looking forward to voting for Gov. Harmon in 1912 for president. For fear of tiring you and your many readers with this lengthy letter, I will close by wishing the Advocate and all my old friends a glad New Year.

Yours truly,

PETER FRUSH.

still. Owing to the jingle of the sleigh bells they failed to hear the west bound car which at that moment was coming at a rapid rate. However, the motorman saw them just in time to stop the car, within a few feet of Mrs. Comisford, who was entangled in the lines and she could not get up.

The conductor was very kind in helping them off the track, and besides a few bruises and the shock and fright they were very fortunate to escape with their lives.

DIRGE, ON THE LAST WINE PIE.

Tell on, ye loud and solemn bell, tell on:

A great and mighty hunter now is gone;

His bark at last has wandered to a shore,

It ne'er again can leave—oh, never more!

But when he used to sit and play with bones,

His bones are laid, and there those very stones,

Which his oft petted head was made to know,

Now mingle with the dust they hated so.

He was a noted wag! How many jokes

He played on market days with the old folks,

While carrying a basket he would eat,

Most daintily fellow nearly half the meat.

Twice then he seemed to think it meet

To mince

And struts as if he were of consequence,

But now, alas! his mincing is his meat;

And strutting was his last, his greatest feat.

His known Divinity was Great (thin) pan;

He was ent-tailed on him by cruel man;

And yet in worshipping he was not slow

And failed to furnish music boys love so.

His leg-acy—oh it was wondrous lame,

A kennel was his all, and it the same,

That first was handed down when time was not—

So long ago, yet never left this spot.

But he is gone and none to take his place,

He was the last one of a noble race;

And though his bark had oft received the lash,

He never thought that he would come to this.

Ne'er shall he look upon his like again!

Then mortals mourn for such a spirit slain,

He's but a dogged wretch, who would not weep,

For such a one who sleeps his long last sleep!

C. P. KING, M. D.
